October 15, 2015
NATIONAL WHITE CANE Safety DAY

Help us to honor National White Cane Safety Day in Fort Lauderdale Florida.

We, The National Federation of the Blind, Greater Broward Chapter, along with The Broward County Talking Book Library, would like to invite our friends to join us on October 15th, 2015 in downtown Fort Lauderdale for our White Cane Safety Day Walk. Join us on this day to help educate the public by demonstrating all of our rights to cross the street without a vehicle crossing in front of you.

Please meet us at the Broward County Library, located at, 100 South Andrews Avenue, Ft. Lauderdale, Fl. 33301, on Thursday October 15, 2015 at 10:00 A.M. We will gather for a Continental Breakfast and opening ceremony. We will then go to the corner of Broward Boulevard and West First Avenue at 11:00 A.M. to start our walk. We will continue to cross this intersection for 45 minutes, after which we will go to the Broward County Library Lobby located at, 100 South Andrews Avenue, for presentations recognizing this special day.

At noon, ceremonies will be held, and White Cane Safety Day will conclude with a lunch.
