MOVE PEOPLE

To better move people around Broward we need to first identify who we are moving. The snapshot below helps us identify growing trends in our community and better assess their transportation needs as they continue to grow and change.

CREATE JOBS

The jobs outlook in this region has changed the most dramatically in the last decade. As the labor force has increased, so has the number of people who live below the poverty line. Broward’s growing labor force is the life blood of this region.

STRENGTHEN COMMUNITIES

Who makes up a community and what language they speak provide an important snapshot of a region and its communities. Additionally, homeownership rates, including vacant and seasonal housing statistics, give valuable insights into the the make up of those communities.
